BIBLIOTHECÆ huic, cujus Catalogus Tuis, Vir Præstantissime, oculis subjicitur, famam laudémque conciliavit Nomen Harleianum. Comes Ille Oxonienſis insigni apud probos omnes & eruditos memoriâ clarus o- pes literarias domi foríſque, undecunque corradi possent, passim perquisitas, magnis sumptibus, in-duſtriâ ſingulari, ſtudióque indefeſſo, in hanc congeſſit. Nonnullis hujuſmodi Thesauris haud raro accidit; ut, quos longus peregrinusque labor sibi accumulavit, defuncto poſſeſſore, brevi dilabantur: quíque in tuto loco diligenter & fidè diſpoſiti potuiſſent ſera poſteritati innotuiſſe, & communibus omnium uſibus inſervire; lateant privatorum ſcrinijs emancipati, membratímque divulſi prorſus exoleſcant. Huic incommodo ut nonnihil remedii adhibeatur; & Librorum, qui in publico uſu eſſe ceſſaverunt, venúmque abierunt, notitia non omnino intereat; Catalogos conficiendi increbuit conſuetudo: ex quibus, ſi Liber ipſe conſuli nequeat, ſciatur ſaltem, ubi, quando, per quos (cum aliis, quæ eò pertinent) editio Libri prodierit. Intelligunt periti & accurati Scriptores, quantum horum cognitio (levioris utcunque momenti eſſe videatur) conferat ad veritatem in quæſtionibus aliquando literariis inveſtigandam & confirmandam: quantíque idcirco interſit, omni accuratione uti in conſtruendis iis Catalogis; quorum fide unicâ rei controverſæ veritas conſtat.

Bibliothecæ idem, quod & aliis antea non paucis, contigit Harleianæ. En, quàm improviſæ ſunt humanarum rerum vices! Veteres (ut Virgilii verba uſurpem) coloni migrare coguntur: quaſi (quod de Pompeio & Liberis dixit Martialis) ruina tanta uno loco jacere non potuerit. Illorum tamen Librorum, quantumvis exulantium, recordationem aboleri vetabit ſequens Nomenclatura. Ii, quibus, id negotii demandatum eſt, optimorum in eo genere Catalogorum ordinem obſervant. Mihi non vacavit meæ opellæ quicquam in penſum tam arduum dotum impendere; nisi quòd, rogatus, præfandi partes suscepi: neque equidem invitus; quippe qui noluerim oblatam prætermittere occasionem, mortui Comitis Manibus, hoc grati, quem semper habui erga vivum, animi testimonium declarandi. Solent erigi Monumenta, quorum Inscriptiones rerum antiquitus gestarum virorúmque celebriorum mentionem perpetuant; & ea, quæ ex conspectu nostro amota sunt, animo elabi non patiuntur. Hic Artium Liberalium Disciplinarúmque Amatoribus offertur Catalogus; tanquam perenne quoddam Literarium Musei Harleiani Monumentum. Monumentum autem, nudum, inornatum, inhonoratum, suóque Honoratissimo quondam Hero omnino indignum, exponere non visum est. Tuum igitur, Vir omnibus egregiis dotibus cumulatissime, & indole ad omnigenam eruditionem promovendam propensâ prædite, Nomen ut huic præfigatur, quo nullum ornamentum occurrit ornatius, permittes. Catalogus tam potenti patrocinio fultus, faciliùs inibit eruditorum gratiam: tantóque superiorem inter istam Catalogorum, qui quotidie obtruduntur, turbam Locum vindicabit. Bibliotheca nobilis Nobili suo Parente orba Tuum implorat auxilium; Tuæ tutelæ suos committit fœtus. Magnanimi viri est orbis subvenire. Illa sibi non optat majus obtingere præsidium: neque quid est Viro Literatissimo optatius, quàm Literis patrocinari. Librorum causam egi; sit Tuâ veniâ fas agere meam.

Te nolim, nolim quemquam, ignorare; quæ potissimùm causa me ad præfandum hìc induxerit. Sentio, & nunquam non sentiam, quot Tibi me beneficiis obstrinxeris. Nemo me haberet excusatum;

tùm; mihi ipſe non ignoſcerem; ſi deeſſem officio, quoties datur eo fungendi copia. Opportunitatem itaque lubentiſſimè arripui tam commodè oſtentandi, profitendi palàm, quantum Tibi debeam: exorandique, ut, quamdiu me gratum præbeam clientem, benevolum Te experiar Patronum.

VALE, Vir Illuſtriſſime. Te ſoſpitet DEUS OPT. MAX. Faxit, ut ſub Tuis auſpiciis noſtra diu floreat Reſpublica.

AN ACCOUNT OF THE HARLEIAN LIBRARY.

TO ſolicit a SUBSCRIPTION for a Catalogue of Books expoſed to Sale, is an Attempt for which ſome Apology cannot but be neceſſary; for few would willingly contribute to the Expence of Volumes, by which neither Inſtruction nor Entertainment could be afforded, from which only the Bookſeller could expect Advantage, and of which the only Uſe muſt ceaſe, at the Diſperſion of the Library.

NOR could the Reaſonableneſs of an univerſal Rejection of our Propoſal be denied, if this Catalogue were to be compiled with no other View, than that of promoting the Sale of the Books which it enumerates, and drawn up with that Inaccuracy and Confuſion which may be found in thoſe that are daily publiſhed.

BUT our Deſign, like our Propoſal, is uncommon, and to be proſecuted at a very uncommon Expence; it being intended, that the Books ſhall be diſtributed into their diſtinct Claſſes, and every Claſs ranged with ſome Regard to the Age of the Writers; that every Book ſhall be accurately deſcribed; that the Peculiarities of Editions ſhall be remarked, and Obſervations from the Authors of Literary Hiſtory occaſionally interſperſed, that, by this Catalogue, we may inform Poſterity, of the Excellence and Value of this great Collection, and promote the Knowledge of ſcarce Books, and elegant Editions. For this Purpoſe Men of Letters are engaged, who cannot even be ſupplied with Amanuenſes, but at an Expence above that of a common Catalogue.

To ſhew that this Collection deſerves a particular Degree of Regard from the Learned and the Studious, that it exceeds any Library that was ever yet offered to public Sale, in the Value as well as Number of the Volumes which it contains, and that therefore this Catalogue will not be of leſs Uſe to Men of Letters, than thoſe of the Thuanian, Heinſian, or Barberinian Libraries, it may not be improper to exhibit a general Account of the different Claſſes, as they are naturally divided by the ſeveral Sciences.

By this Method we can indeed exhibit only a general Idea, at once magnificent and confuſed; an Idea of the Writings of many Nations, collected from diſtant Parts of the World, diſcovered ſometimes by Chance, and ſometimes by Curioſity, amidſt the Rubbiſh of forſaken Monaſteries, and the Repoſitories of ancient Families, and brought hither from every Part, as to the univerſal Receptacle of Learning.

It will be no unpleaſing Effect of this Account, if thoſe, that ſhall happen to peruſe it, ſhould be inclined by it, to reflect on the Character of the late Proprietors, and to pay ſome Tribute of Veneration to their Ardor for Literature, to that generous and exalted Curioſity which they gratified with inceſſant Searches and immenſe Expence, and to which they dedicated that Time and that Superfluity of Fortune, which many others of their Rank employ in the Purſuit of contemptible Amuſements, or the Gratification of guilty Paſſions. And, ſurely, every Man, who conſiders Learning as ornamental and advantageous to the Community, muſt allow them the Honour of public Benefactors, who have introduced amongſt us Authors not hitherto well known, and added to the Literary Treaſures of their Native Country.

That our Catalogue will excite any other Man to emulate the Collectors of this Library, to prefer Books and Manuſcripts to Equipage and Luxury, and to forſake Noiſe and Diverſion for the Converſation of the Learned, and the Satisfaction of extenſive Knowledge, we are very far from preſuming to hope, but ſhall make no Scruple to aſſert, that, if any Man ſhould happen to be ſeized with ſuch laudable Ambition, he may find in this Catalogue Hints and Informations which are not eaſily to be met with; he will diſcover, that the boaſted Bodleian Library is very far from a perfect Model, and that even the learned Fabricius cannot compleatly inſtruct him in the early Editions of the Claſſic Writers.

But

But the Collections of Libraries cannot be numerous, and, therefore, Catalogues could not very properly be recommended to the Public, if they had not a more general and frequent Uſe, an Uſe which every Student has experienced, or neglected to his Loſs. By the Means of Catalogues only can it be known, what has been written on every Part of Learning, and the Hazard avoided of encountering Difficulties which have already been cleared, diſcuſſing Queſtions which have already been decided and digging in Mines of Literature which former Ages have exhauſted.

How often this has been the Fate of Students, every Man of Letters can declare, and, perhaps, there are very few who have not ſometimes valued as new Diſcoveries, made by themſelves, thoſe Obſervations, which have long ſince been publiſhed, and of which the World therefore will refuſe them the Praiſe; nor can the Refuſal be cenſured as any enormous Violation of Juſtice; for, why ſhould they not forfeit by their Ignorance, what they might claim by their Sagacity?

To illuſtrate this Remark, by the Mention of obſcure Names, would not much confirm it; and to vilify for this Purpoſe the Memory of Men truly great, would be to deny them the Reverence which they may juſtly claim from thoſe whom their Writings have inſtructed. May the Shade at leaſt of one great Engliſh Critic reſt without Diſturbance, and may no Man preſume to inſult his Memory, who wants his Learning, his Reaſon, or his Wit.

From the vexatious Diſappointment of meeting Reproach, where Praiſe is expected, every Man will certainly deſire to be ſecured; and therefore that Book will have ſome Claim to his Regard, from which he may receive Informations of the Labours of his Predeceſſors, ſuch as a Catalogue of the Harleian Library will copiouſly afford him.

Nor is the Uſe of Catalogues of leſs Importance to thoſe whom Curioſity has engaged in the Study of Literary Hiſtory, and who think the intellectual Revolutions of the World more worthy of their Attention, than the Ravages of Tyrants, the Deſolation of Kingdoms, the Rout of Armies, and the Fall of Empires. Thoſe who are pleaſed with obſerving the firſt Birth of new Opinions, their Struggles againſt Oppoſition, their ſilent Progreſs under Perſecution, their general Reception, and their gradual Decline, or ſudden Extinction; thoſe that amuſe themſelves with remarking the different Periods of human Knowledge, and obſerve how Darkneſs and Light ſucceed each other, by what Accident the moſt gloomy Nights of Ignorance have given Way to the Dawn of Science, and how Learning has languiſhed and decayed, for Want of Patronage and Regard, or been over-borne by the Prevalence of faſhionable Ignorance, or loſt amidſt the Tumults of Invaſion, and the Storms of Violence. All thoſe, who deſire any Knowledge of the Literary Tranſactions of paſt Ages, may find in Catalogues, like this at leaſt, ſuch an Account as is given by Annaliſts and Chronologers of Civil Hiſtory.

How the Knowledge of the Sacred Writings has been diffuſed, will be obſerved from the Catalogue of the various Editions of the Bible, from the firſt Impreſſion by Fuſt, in 1462, to the preſent Time, in which will be contained the Polyglot Editions of Spain, France, and England, thoſe of the Original Hebrew, the Greek Septuagint, and the Latin Vulgate, with the Verſions which are now uſed in the remoteſt Parts of Europe, in the Country of the Griſons, in Lithuania, Bohemia, Finland, and Iceland.

With regard to the Attempts of the ſame Kind made in our own Country, there are few whoſe Expectations will not be exceeded by the Number of Engliſh Bibles, of which not one is forgotten, whether valuable for the Pomp and Beauty of the Impreſſion, or for the Notes with which the Text is accompanied, or for any Controverſy or Perſecution that it produced, or for the Peculiarity of any ſingle Paſſage. With the ſame Care have the various Editions of the Book of Common Prayer been ſelected, from which all the Alterations which have been made in it may be eaſily remarked.

Amongst a great Number of Roman Miſſals and Breviaries, remarkable for the Beauty of their Cuts and Illuminations, will be found the Moſarabic Miſſal and Breviary, that raiſed ſuch Commotions in the Kingdom of Spain.

The Controverſial Treatiſes written in England, about the Time of the Reformation, have been diligently collected, with a Multitude of remarkable Tracts, ſingle Sermons, and ſmall Treatiſes, which, however worthy to be preſerved, are perhaps to be found in no other Place.

The Regard which was always paid, by the Collectors of this Library, to that remarkable Period of Time, in which the Art of Printing was invented, determined them to accumulate the ancient Impreſſions of the Fathers of the Church, to which the later Additions are added, leſt Antiquity ſhould have ſeemed more worthy of Eſteem than Accuracy.

History has been conſidered with the Regard due to that Study by which the Manners are moſt eaſily formed, and from which the moſt efficacious Inſtruction is received; nor will the moſt extenſive Curioſity fail of Gratification in this Library, from which no Writers have been excluded that relate either the Religious or Civil Affairs of any Nation.

Not only thoſe Authors of Eccleſiaſtical Hiſtory have been procured, that treat of the State of Religion in general, or deliver Accounts of Sects or Nations, but thoſe likewiſe who have confined themſelves to particular Orders of Men in every Church, who have related the Original, and the Rules of every Society, or recounted the Lives of its Founder and its Members; thoſe who have deduced in every Country the Succeſſion of Biſhops, and thoſe who have employed their Abilities in celebrating the Piety of particular Saints, or Martyrs, or Monks, or Nuns.

THE Civil Hiſtory of all Nations has been amaſſed together, nor is it eaſy to determine, which has been thought moſt worthy of Curioſity.

OF France, not only the general Hiſtories and ancient Chronicles, the Accounts of celebrated Reigns, and Narratives of remarkable Events, but even the Memorials of ſingle Families, the Lives of private Men, the Antiquities of particular Cities, Churches, and Monaſteries, the Topography of Provinces, and the Accounts of Laws, Cuſtoms, and Preſcriptions, are here to be found.

THE ſeveral States of Italy have, in this Treaſury, their particular Hiſtorians, whoſe Accounts are, perhaps, generally more exact, by being leſs extenſive, and more intereſting, by being more particular.

NOR has leſs Regard been paid to the different Nations of the Germanic Empire, of which, neither the Bohemians, nor Hungarians, nor Auſtrians, nor Bavarians, have been neglected; nor have their Antiquities, however generally diſregarded, been leſs ſtudiouſly ſearched, than their preſent State.

THE Northern Nations have ſupplied this Collection, not only with Hiſtory, but Poetry, with Gothic Antiquities, and Runic Inſcriptions; which at leaſt have this Claim to Veneration, above the Remains of the Roman Magnificence, that they are the Works of thoſe Heroes, by whom the Roman Empire was deſtroyed, and which may plead, at leaſt in this Nation, that they ought not to be neglected by thoſe that owe to the Men whoſe Memories they preſerve, their Conſtitution, their Properties, and their Liberties.

THE Curioſity of theſe Collectors extended equally to all Parts of the World; nor did they forget to add to the Northern the Southern Writers, or to adorn their Collection with Chronicles of Spain, and the Conqueſt of Mexico.

EVEN of thoſe Nations with which we have leſs Intercourſe, whoſe Cuſtoms are leſs accurately known, and whoſe Hiſtory is leſs diſtinctly recounted, there are in this Library repoſited ſuch Accounts, as the Europeans have been hitherto able to obtain; nor are the Mogul, the Tartar, the Turk, and the Saracen, without their Hiſtorians.

THAT

THAT Perſons ſo inquiſitive, with regard to the Tranſactions of other Nations, ſhould enquire yet more ardently after the Hiſtory of their own, may be naturally expected; and, indeed, this Part of the Library is no common Inſtance of Diligence and Accuracy. Here are to be found, with the ancient Chronicles, and larger Hiſtories of Britain, the Narratives of ſingle Reigns, and the Accounts of remarkable Revolutions, the topographical Hiſtories of Counties, the Pedigrees of Families, the Antiquities of Churches and Cities, the Proceedings of Parliaments, the Records of Monaſteries, and the Lives of particular Men, whether eminent in the Church or the State, or remarkable in private Life; whether exemplary for their Virtues, or deteſtable for their Crimes; whether perſecuted for Religion, or executed for Rebellion.

THAT memorable Period of the Engliſh Hiſtory, which begins with the Reign of King Charles the Firſt, and ends with the Reſtoration, will almoſt furniſh a Library alone, ſuch is the Number of Volumes, Pamphlets, and Papers, which were publiſhed by either Party, and ſuch is the Care with which they have been preſerved.

NOR is Hiſtory without the neceſſary Preparatives and Attendants, Geography and Chronology; of Geography the beſt Writers and Delineators have been procured, and Pomp and Accuracy have both been regarded. The Student of Chronology may here find likewiſe thoſe Authors who ſearched the Records of Time, and fixed the Periods of Hiſtory.

WITH the Hiſtorians and Geographers, may be ranked the Writers of Voyages and Travels, which may be read here in the Latin, Engliſh, Dutch, German, French, Italian, and Spaniſh Languages.

THE Laws of different Countries, as they are in themſelves equally worthy of Curioſity with their Hiſtory, have, in this Collection, been juſtly regarded; and the Rules, by which the various Communities of the World are governed, may be here examined and compared. Here are the ancient Editions of the Papal Decretals, and the Commentators on the Civil Law, the Edicts of Spain, and the Statutes of Venice.

BUT, with particular Induſtry, have the various Writers on the Laws of our own Country been collected, from the moſt ancient to the preſent Time, from the Bodies of the Statutes to the minuteſt Treatiſe; not only the Reports, Precedents, and Readings of our own Courts, but even the Laws of our Weſt-Indian Colonies will be exhibited in our Catalogue.

BUT neither Hiſtory nor Law have been ſo far able to engroſs this Library, as to exclude Phyſic, Philoſophy, or Criticiſm.

Theſe

These have been thought, with Justice, worthy of a Place, who have examined the different Species of Animals, delineated their Forms, or described their Properties and Instincts, or who have penetrated the Bowels of the Earth, treated on its different Strata, and analysed its Metals; or who have amused themselves with less laborious Speculations, and planted Trees, or cultivated Flowers.

Those that have exalted their Thoughts above the minuter Parts of the Creation, who have observed the Motions of the Heavenly Bodies, and attempted Systems of the Universe, have not been denied the Honour which they deserved by so great an Attempt, whatever has been their Success. Nor have those Mathematicians been rejected, who have applied their Science to the common Purposes of Life, or those that have deviated into the kindred Arts, of Tactics, Architecture, and Fortification.

Even Arts of far less Importance have found their Authors, nor have these Authors been despised by the boundless Curiosity of the Proprietors of the Harleian Library. The Writers on Horsemanship and Fencing are more numerous, and more bulky, than could be expected, by those who reflect how seldom those excel in either, whom their Education has qualified to compose Books.

The Admirer of Greek and Roman Literature will meet, in this Collection, with Editions little known to the most inquisitive Critics, and which have escaped the Observation of those whose great Employment has been the Collation of Copies; nor will he find only the most ancient Editions of Faustus, Jenson, Spira, Sweynheim, and Pannartz, but the most accurate likewise and beautiful of Colinæus, the Juntæ, Plantin, Aldus, the Stephens, and Elzevir, with the Commentaries and Observations of the most learned Editors.

Nor are they accompanied only with the Illustrations of those who have confined their Attempts to particular Writers, but of those likewise who have treated on any Part of the Greek or Roman Antiquities, their Laws, their Customs, their Dress, their Buildings, their Wars, their Revenues, or the Rites and Ceremonies of their Worship, and those that have endeavoured to explain any of their Authors from their Statues or their Coins.

Next to the Ancients, those Writers deserve to be mentioned, who, at the Restoration of Literature, imitated their Language and their Stile with so great Success, or who laboured with so much Industry to make them understood: Such were Philelphus and Politian, Scaliger and Buchanan, and the Poets of the Age of Leo the Tenth; these are likewise to be found in this Library, together with the Deliciæ, or Collections of all Nations.

PAINTING is ſo nearly allied to Poetry, that it cannot be wondered that thoſe who have ſo much eſteemed the one, have paid an equal Regard to the other; and therefore it may be eaſily imagined, that the Collection of Prints is numerous in an uncommon Degree; but ſurely the Expectation of every Man will be exceeded, when he is informed that there are more than forty thouſand engraven from Raphael, Titian, Guido, the Carraches, and a thouſand others, by Mantueil, Hallar, Callot, Edelinck, and Drigny, and other Engravers of equal Reputation.

THERE is alſo a great Collection of original Drawings, of which three ſeem to deſerve a particular Mention; the firſt exhibits a Repreſentation of the Inſide of St. Peter's Church at Rome; the ſecond, of that of St. John Lateran; and the third, of the high Altar of St. Ignatius, all painted with the utmoſt Accuracy in their proper Colours.

As the Value of this great Collection may be conceived from this Account, however imperfect, as the Variety of Subjects muſt engage the Curioſity of Men of different Studies, Inclinations, and Employments, it may be thought of very little Uſe to mention any ſlighter Advantages, or to dwell on the Decorations and Embelliſhments which the Generoſity of the Proprietors has beſtowed upon it; yet, ſince the Compiler of the Thuanian Catalogue thought not even that Species of Elegance below his Obſervation, it may not be improper to obſerve, that the Harleian Library, perhaps, excels all others, not more in the Number and Excellence, than in the Splendor of its Volumes.

WE may now ſurely be allowed to hope, that our Catalogue will be thought not unworthy of the Public Curioſity; that it will be purchaſed as a Record of this great Collection, and preſerved as one of the Memorials of Learning.

THE Patrons of Literature will forgive the Purchaſer of this Library, if he preſumes to aſſert ſome Claim to their Protection and Encouragement, as he may have been inſtrumental in continuing to this Nation the Advantage of it. The Sale of Voſſius's Collection into a Foreign Country is, to this Day, regretted by Men of Letters; and, if this Effort for the Prevention of another Loſs of the ſame Kind ſhould be diſadvantageous to him, no Man will hereafter willingly riſque his Fortune in the Cauſe of Learning.

154 THE Bible, with marginal Notes, black Letter, with Cuts 1520

This is the Bible in which, by an artful Counterfeit, deſcribed by Mr. Wanley, St. Paul is called the Knave, &c. the Raſure of the true Word Servant, and the Inſertion of the falſe Reading, though diſcoverable by an exact Obſerver, are ſo well executed, that the Bible was ſold to the Duke of Lauderdale, for ſeventeen Guineas, by one Thornton, who, indeed firſt effaced Matthew's Preface, all the Dates, except one, of which he eraſed XVII, and added a Note that this Bible, which was the Edition of 1537, was printed in 1520, a Date earlier than that of any Engliſh Bible. It does not appear that this Reading was ever really printed.

155 ——, black Letter, bound in Ruſſia Leather, with a broad Border of Gold —— —— 1535

This is the firſt Engliſh Bible, and was publiſhed by Coverdale.

156 The New Teſtament, corrected by William Tyndale, with his Preface, black Letter —— —— 1536
157 ——, by the ſame, bound in red Morocco, finely ornamented with Gold —— —— 1536
158 The Bible, which is all the Holy Scripture, &c. purely and truly tranſlated into Engliſh by Tho. Matthew — 1537

Of this Bible, to the Books of Chronicles, the Tranſlation is Tyndal's, together with that of the whole N. Teſtament, the reſt is reprinted from Coverdale's, except the Prophecy of Jonas, which is Tyndal's. Matthew is imagined

imagined a fictitious Name. This Bible was enjoined to be placed in every Parish Church, that the People might read it. It is in the black Letter. For printing this Bible, Grafton, the Printer, was persecuted about five Years afterwards.

159 The Bible, &c. translated after the Verity of the Hebrew and Greek Texts, by the diligent Study of many excellent learned Men, expert in the foresaid Tongues, by Grafton and Whitchurch ——— ——— 1539

This Bible has a very remarkable Frontispiece, which is followed by an Exhortation, &c. The Summe of Scriptures, &c. The New Testament has another Frontispiece. At the End is a Table of the Epist. and Gospels red in the Church after Salisbury Use, and another of those, which are red on divers Saincles Dayes. It is in the black Letter, with Cuts.

160 The Old Testament, by Taverner, dedicated to the King — 1539

This Edition is called by Bale, Recognitio sive potius nova Versio. Taverner gave so much Offence by this Performance, that, after the Death of Lord Cromwel, by whom he was protected, he was imprisoned for it in the Tower, but was afterwards released. It is in the black Letter.

161 The Bible, in English, &c. with a Prologue by the Father in God, Thomas Cranmer, Archbishop of Canterbury. This is the Bible appointed to the Use of * Churches. In Russia, gilt, by Edw. Whitchurch ——— ——— 1540

* A Proclamation was this Year published, commanding, that every Parish Church should procure one of these Bibles, of the largest Form, and place it upon a Desk in some convenient Part of the Church for the Use of the People, under a Penalty of forty Shillings a Month, for Neglect, after the Time limited.

162 ———, bound in Calves Leather ——— ———

163 ———. with Archbishop Cranmer's Preface, black Letter, with Cuts ——— ——— printed by Grafton 1540

These two Bibles are supposed to be of the same Edition, these two Printers being joined in the Patent.

164 ———, with Archbishop Cranmer's Preface, black Letter, with Cuts — ——— printed by Whitchurch 1541

165 ———, in English, of the largest and greatest Volume, authorised by our most redoubted Lord and oversene at the Commaundment &c. by the Right Reverend Father in God, Cuthbert, Bishop of Duresme, and Nicolas, Bishop of Rochester, black Letter, with Cuts, bound in Russia Leather, with a broad Border of Gold on the Sides, printed by Grafton, and finished in November — ——— 1541

This is known by the Term of the Great Bible.

166 ———, bound in the same Manner, printed likewise by Grafton, and finished in December 1549

These of November and December are different Editions.

167 The

167 The Bible, &c. dedicated to Edward the Sixth, with many Cuts, black Letter, gilt on the Leaves, printed by John Daye, in Aldersgate, and Will. Seres, in Peter College 1549

168 ———, translated by Tho. Matthews, black Letter, printed by Tho. Reynolds and William Hill 1549

This Edition is reprinted from that of 1537, as appears from the End, in which are these Words: To the Honour and Praise of God was this Bible printed and finished, in the Year of our Lord 1537, and now again imprinted. But it is observed, that some Alterations have been made.

169 ———, printed by Nicholas Hill, for Tho. Petit, in St. Paul's Church-Yard 1551

In the last Page is this: "Here endeth the whole Bible "after the Translation of Tho. Matthew, with all his "Prologues, that is to say, before the five Books of Moses, "the Prophet Jonas, and before every of the four Evan-"gelists, and before every Epistle of the New Testament." These Prologues having given such Offence to the Clergy, that they were omitted in all the authorised Editions, in Henry the Eighth's Reign, the Mention of them had a Tendency to recommend this Edition, in which, however, there is nothing more than in the last of 1549. This Edition, being printed at two Presses, has in different Copies different Subscriptions.

170 ———, in English by John Daye 1551

This is a different Edition from the former, but has likewise the Prologues, without which no Bible would at this Time have been well received; some of the Notes of Matthew's Bible are retained, others are omitted, and many Alterations are made, probably, by Edmond Beck, who wrote the Supputation of Time from Adam to the Year of the Impression.

171 ———, in English, according to the Translation that is appointed to be read in Churches, with Cranmer's Preface, black Letter printed by Richard Harrison 1562

This is a new Edition of the Great Bible.

172 ———, in English, black Letter printed at Rowen, at the Cost of Rich. Carmardon 1562

This is another Edition of the Great Bible.

173 The Holy Bible, published by Archbishop Parker, bound in Russia, gilt ——— ——— — 1568

This is generally known by the Name of the Bishops' Bible, being translated for the greatest Part by the Bishops, whose initial Letters are added at the End of their particular Portions. As, at the End of the Pentateuch, W. E. Willielmus Exceestrensis; the Translators are recounted by Strype, in his Life of Parker. This Edition is so rare, that neither Dr. Burnet, nor Mr. Strype, appear to have seen it. The Date is not either in the Beginning or End, but is inserted in the Archbishop's Arms, and mentioned in the Preface. It is adorned with great Numbers of beautiful Cuts, and printed, as it is obſerved, " in Vit. " Park. novis typis Magnitudinis uſitatæ aut paulo gran- " dioris," with Letters ſomewhat larger than thoſe of the Great Bible. After the Pentateuch is the Picture of the Earl of Leiceſter, and before the Pſalms that of Lord Burleigh, as Favourers of the Work. In this Edition, at the End of the Book of Wiſdom, are the Letters W. C. probably for the Biſhop of Chicheſter. In the ſecond Edition, the whole Apocrypha is aſcribed to J. N. the Biſhop of Norwich, who, perhaps, reviſed it afterwards.

174 The Holy Bible, ſecond Edition in Folio, bound in Ruſſia Leather, and printed by Jugge 1572

In the firſt Edition the new Tranſlation of the Pſalms was inſerted alone, to which in this is added, in oppoſite Columns, the Tranſlation of the Gr. Bible, in a different Character.

This Edition wants the Title. The Date is found at the Beginning of the New Teſtament. It is perhaps the firſt Edition of the Geneva Verſion, printed in Britain, though ſome earlier have been ſometimes mentioned. This is the firſt Bible in Roman Letters.

This is another Edition of the Tranſlation made by the Engliſh Refugees at Geneva, and firſt printed here, by Rowland Harle, about 1560; it was afterwards reviſed and a new Impreſſion of it was recommended by Parker, while he was preparing the Biſhops Bible. It was very frequently reprinted.

This is a new Edition of the Geneva Bible very pompous.

189 The Holy Bible, black Letter, gilt on the Leaves, with large Silver Middle-pieces, Corners, and Claſps, 2 vol. printed by Barker 1613

This is the Tranſlation now uſed, which was made at the Command of King James I. The Tranſlators were Fifty-four of the moſt learned then of that Time, who were divided into five Bodies, of which each was to labour upon a particular Part of the Bible, which was thus divided: The Pentateuch and the Books of Joſuah, Judges, Ruth, Samuel, and Kings, to the Deans of Weſtminſter and St. Paul's, Doctors Saravia, Clark, Layfield, Leigh, Meſſ. Stretford, Suſſex, Clare, Bedwell. From the Chronicles to Eccleſiaſtes, to Dr. Richardſon, and Meſſ. Lively, Chadderton, Dillingham, Hartiſon, Andrews, Spalding, Binge. All the Prophets and Lamentations, to Drs. Harding, Reinolds, Holland, Kilby, Meſſ. Hereford, Brett, Fareclowe. All the Epiſtles, to the Dean of Cheſter, Drs. Hutchinſon, Spencer, Meſſ. Fenton, Rabbet, Sanderſon, Dakins. The Goſpels, Acts, and Apocalypſe, to the Deans of Chriſtchurch, Wincheſter, Worceſter, Windſor, Drs. Perin, Ravens, Meſſ. Savile, Harmer. And the Apocrypha to Drs. Duport, Brauthwait, Ratcliff, Meſſ. Ward, Downes, Boyſe, Warde. They met at Weſtminſter, Oxford, and Cambridge, as it was convenient for each Body. The Method, in which they proceeded, ſeems to have been this: Several Tranſlations of each Part were drawn up by the Members of that Body, to which it was allotted, who then in a joint Conſultation ſelected three of the beſt, or compiled them out of the whole Number. Thus, in three Years, three Tranſlations of the Whole were ſent to London, then ſix Deputies, two from each Place, were appointed, to extract one Tranſlation out of the Three, which was finiſhed and printed 1611. See Selden's Table Talk.

419 THE Prophete Iſaye and Jeremy, tranſlated into Engliſh by George Joye, black Letter printed in Strasburg, by B. Beckneth 1531

This is the firſt, perhaps the only Edition of this Tranſlation. The Tranſlation of Jeremy by the ſame Writer, bound with it, is of 1533, in the Preface to which are many Satirical Reflections on the Roman Church.

420 The New Teſtament, black Letter, ruled with red Lines, and all the initial Letters at the Beginning of each Book, repreſenting the Subject, finely coloured, as likewiſe all the capital Letters to each Chapter and Verſe throughout the Book adorned with different Colours, and raiſed with Gold, neatly bound in red Morocco —— — — —

In this Book no Date is left, but it appears to be Tyndal's Verſion, and is probably one of the Editions printed in Holland, before his Reviſal.

421 ——————, black Letter, with Cuts printed at Antwerp by M. Emperour 1534

This is Tyndal's Verſion.

422 The Pentateuch, newly corrected and amended by W. T. that is, Tyndal — — — — 1534

It ſeems to have been printed by ſome Foreigner.

423 Storrys & Propheſies out of the Holy Scriptur, gainyſchede with faire Ymages, and with devoute Prayeirs approuived by the Inquiſitor of the Chreſten Faithe, by Maeſter Nic. Coppen de Montibus, Dean of St. Peter's, and Chancellor of the Univerſity of Loven, black Letter — — 1535

At the End: "This Boke is prentyd in Andwarpe, upon "the Lombardes Walle, over agaynſt the Golden Hand, "by my, Simon Cowke, Anno XXXVI." The Compiler of this Work ſeems to have been a Foreigner, for in the Account of the Creation, with which he begins, he tranlates the Text thus: "God ſpake, It waxe Lighte, "and it waxethe Lighte, and God beheld the Lighte "for gode, and ſepared the Lighte,—and there is waxen "out Even and Morning the firſte Day. And God "ſpake, It be a Fyrmament betwext the Waters, and it "ſepared the Waters."——At the End of each Section is a Prayer, alluding to the foregoing Hiſtory. Thus in the Prayer he mentions the Superiority to Beaſts in theſe Words: "You made Man, infounding in him a reſonable "Sole, inviſible, intranſitoryus, and unmortal, with which "Sole the Man, his God may love you,—— You made "him above all Creatures ſo much coſtley, &c." Each Hiſtory is illuſtrated with a Cut.

424 The New Teſtament, yet once agayne corrected, by W. Tyndal, wheare unto is added an Exhortation of Eraſmus, black Letter, gilt on the Leaves — — 1536

425 ———, with Cuts, gilt on the Leaves and bound in blue Turkey, neatly gilt printed at Antwerp by M. Trom 1538

426 ———, black Letter ——— 1539

427 ———, faithfully tranſlated and lately corrected by Miles Coverdale ——— — 1538

This Teſtament ſeems printed abroad, but is very accurate. In the Title is a Kind of Label, incloſing the Words, "Search the Scriptures." At the End is a Collection of the Epiſtles from the Old Teſtament, "after the Uſe of Sa-"liſbury." It has Cuts only in the Apocalypſe, which, whatever was the Reaſon, are very frequent in the Teſtaments of that Time.

428 ———, by Tyndal ——— — 1544

It ſeems a foreign Print.

429 ———, according to the Tranſlation of the Great Bible —— Lond. in Officina Rich. Grafton 1566

430 ———, ſet forth by William Tyndal, black Letter, gilt on the Leaves —— printed by W. Copland 1549

This Edition has Contents before each Chapter, and Notes after it, from Matthew's Edition.

431 ———, Engliſh, tranſlated from the Greek, with the Latin Tranſlation of Eraſmus, to which is added a Kalendar ——— ——— 1550

The Engliſh is Tyndal's Verſion.

432 ———, newly ſet forth after the beſt Copy of W. Tyndal's Tranſlation, whereunto are added the Notes of Tho. Matthew, black Letter imprinted at London, by John Daye 1550

433 ———, dedicated to Edward VI. black Letter, gilt on the Leaves —— London, printed by R. Jugge

The Verſion is Tyndal's. There are Notes at the End of each Chapter, and Cuts in the Revelations.

In fine habentur hæc:

Ad laudem omnipotentis Dei, nec non Virginis Mariæ Matris ejus, omnium Sanctorum Sanctarumq; expletum eſt Miſſale mixtum ſecundum regulam Beati Iſidori dictum Mozarabes: Maxima cum diligentia perlectum & emendatum per Reverendum in utroque jure Doctorem Dominum Alfonſium Ortiz Canonicum Toletanum. Impreſſum in regali Civitate Toleti, Juſſu Reverendiſſimi in Chriſto Patris Domini D. Franciſci Ximenii, ejuſdem Civitatis Archiepiſcopi. Impenſis Nobilis Melchioris Gorricum Novarienſis, per Magiſtrum Petrum Tragembach, Alemannum. Anno Salutis noſtræ, 1500, Die 29 Menſis Januarii.

Hujus Libri Hiſtoriam a Scriptoribus Vitæ Cardinalis Ximenii traditam paucis perſtringere non abs re futurum puto. Arii Sententia ab Hiſpanis, ad exemplum Ricaredi Regis, ejurata, Miſſale Iſidoro Archiepiſcopo Seviliæ, Concilium quartum Toletanum emendandum credidit, quod ab eo purgatum & ordinatum omnibus Eccleſiis quarum hactenus quæque Miſſale ſibi proprium habuerat utendum mandavit. Mauris vero per totam Hiſpaniam graſſantibus, Eccleſiis direptis, totoq; rerum tum ſacrarum tum civilium ordine turbato, Miſſalia Iſidori evanuerunt, nuſquam ſervata, præterquamin Urbe Regia Toleto, qua capta, ſex eccleſias Chriſtianis, quibus ſui cultus licentiam fecerant, Mauri reliquerunt. Mauros poſt plura ſecula e Toleto ejecit Alphonſus Sextus, cui, ubi rebus Sacris vacabat, pro Iſidori Miſſali, Romanum in Templa jam Chriſtianæ Religioni reſtituta recipi placuit. Toletani contra obſiſtere, ſuum Miſſale ab antiquis Epiſcopis concinnatum, Sanctorum exemplis comprobatum, & inter Barbarorum tyrannidem & tumultus per multos annos conſervatum fortiter aſſerere. Eo tandem devenit controverſia ut, pro illius ſeculi ingenio, ſingulari certamine dirimenda videretur, e quo Miſſalis Toletani propugnator victor diſceſſit. Toletanis vero victoriam a fortuna non a Deo tributam Rex ratus ad ignem certiorem Divini arbitrii Indicem provocandum cenſuit; Jejunio igitur in Dies aliquot indicto, ignis extruitur, in quem Rege & populo circum genua flectentibus, utrumque Miſſale palam conjicitur, Toletano vero Miſſali, ut aiunt, ignis pepercit, Romanum abſumpſit. Toletanis igitur Rex in iis Eccleſiis quas Barbari non invaſerunt, Deum Ritu Patrum colere permiſit.

Hoc Miſſale Toletanum, quod paulatim exoleverat, invenit Ximenius & typis mandatum, in perpetuam veteris Eccleſiæ Memoriam, in celeberrimis Bibliothecis reponendum curavit, Sacellumque, in quo pro more veterum quotidie cantaretur, condidit. Miſſale tamen noſtris temporibus adeo rarum eſt, ut periculum ſit, ut Ximenii cura id ab oblivione non ſatis vindicaverit.

FOLIO.

4470 HErodoti Hiſtoria Lat. verſ. per Laurent. Vallam Romæ, per Arnold. Pannartz. in Domo Petri de Maximis 1475
Patet, ex Verſibus infra Titulum poſitis, Johannem Andream Epiſcopum Alerienſem hujus Editionis curam habuiſſe: Miraris

Miraris, fuerim cum Scriptor Ionicus, unde eſt, Quod nunc Romanus perlegor Herodotus.
Magna quidem merito referenda eſt gratia Vallæ,
Ille meam pulchre tranſtulit Hiſtoriam.
Res igitur priſcas, memoranda facta virorum,
Qui cupit ex uno diſcere noſtra legat.
Nam, ne defuerint noſtra exemplaria Romæ,
Arnoldi artifices conſuluere manus.
In quibus Andreas Alerienſis Epiſcopus olim
Extremam impoſuit, nec ſine laude, limam.

Jacobus Amiotus, in hac Interpretatione, codices Græcos MSS. contulit, ut apparet ex Plutarcho Græco manu ejus notato quem hodie ſervant Patres Oratorii Pariſienſes. Sic Fabricius. De hujus Tranſlationis Præſtantia multi clariſſimi Viri magnifice dixerunt; Hermannus vero Cruſerius, Græcarum Literarum peritiſſimus, in Præf. ad ſuam Plutarchi Vitarum Verſionem Latinam, teſtimonium ejus ampliſſimum dedit, quod ita legitur: Interea, cum jam poliviſſem atque emendaſſem Vitas meas Plutarchi, oſtendit mihi Principis mei Legatus, Secretarius regius, editas elegantiſſime ab Amioto lingua Gallica Vitas Plutarchi, quæ exierant in publicum ſex menſes antequam eas viderem. Hujus Viri mihi eruditio & diligentia aliquid lucis nonnullis in locis attulit. Cui ego teſtimonium dabo non poſſe fieri ut quiſquam hoc tempore Plutarchum tam vertat ornate Latina lingua, quam quam vertit ille ſua. In cauſa eſt, quod ille linguam maternam nitidiſſimis coloribus excoluerit diſtinxeritque, cum nos linguam Romanam vix longo temporis ſpatio ac multis laboribus alienam atque exoletam quaſi balbutiamus.

4877 Virgil's Æneis, tranſlated into Scottiſh Verſe, by Gawin Douglas, to which is added a large Gloſſary Edinburgh 1710

This is a new Edition of the very old Scottiſh Tranſlation of Gawin Douglas, Biſhop of Dunkel, and Uncle to the Earl of Angus, who flouriſhed in the XIVth and XVth Centuries, whoſe Language, if it be not old Engliſh, is extremely near a-kin to it; and accordingly Sir David Lindſay, in his Prologue to the Complaint of Papingo, publiſhed at Edinburgh, 1592, calls him the Roſe of Inglis [Engliſh] Rhetorick. William Liſle, Eſq; in his Preface to a Saxon Treatiſe, De veteri & novo Teſt. Ed. Lond. 1623. gives the following Teſtimony of the Excellency of the Biſhop's Performance: I lighted on Virgil ſcottiſhed by the Reverend Gawin Douglas, &c. the beſt Tranſlation of that Poet that ever I read: And tho' I found that Dialect more hard than any of the former (as nearer the Saxon, becauſe farther from the Norman) yet, with the Help of the Latin, I made Shift to underſtand it, and read the Book more than once, from the Beginning to the End; whereby, I muſt confeſs, I got more Knowledge of that I ſought, than by any of the other.

Utriuſque Editionis ſingulæ paginæ ab eadem dictione incipiunt, in eandem definunt, ut cuiquam negligentius conferenti eodem partu editæ videantur; nec quidquam Mattairius invenit quo poſterior a priore diſcrepet, niſi in prima pagina & poſtrema, quas Typographus paululum mutare potuit, ut alterius Editionis fidem faceret. At vero qui animo ad rem attento hos Libros inſpexerit facile reperiet, quo a Fauſto omnem doli mali ſuſpicionem longe amolire poſſit. 5919 TEmplum Vaticanum & ipsius Origo, Opus, ab Equite Carolo Fontana editum, & in 7 Lib. distributum, Latinisque Literis, a Joan. Jos. Bonnerue, consignatum, chart. max. ——— ——— ——— Romæ 1694

Cum, Anno 1680, Innocentio XI. & Congregationi Cardinalium, exhibita fuisset dissertatio, asseverans ruinam Vaticani tholi esse pertimescendam, negotium datum fuit illustrissimo Dom. Vestiniano, summo ejus fabricæ Moderatori, ut quantocyus convocaret peritissimos Urbis architectos, ad singulas tholi aliasque templi partes diligentissime perlustrandas; quo facto cum falsam illam esse relationem cognovissent, quia longe lateque jam disseminata erat, idem Pontifex D. Vestiniano mandavit, ut nobilissimum Equitem Fontanam, hujus templi Ministrum & Architectum, juberet rationes, quibus ejus securitas & firmissima stabilitas nitantur, accurate scripto consignare, in perpetuam rei memoriam in archivis ejusdem fabricæ asservando. Fontana, in Libro supra recensito, pensum hoc summa cura perfecit; non tantum Vaticanam basilicam graphice descripsit, sed etiam, quantum magnificentia & majestate veterem basilicam, & celeberrima Asiæ templa, superet, pluribus ostendit. Opus hoc est splendidissimum, & totum pæne Figuris accuratissimis & nitidissime ære incisis refertum.

PRYNNE's WORKS. FOLIO.

7994 PRynne's exact Chronological Vindication and Historical Demonstration of our British, Roman, Saxon, Danish, Norman, English Kings supreme Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction in, and over all spiritual or religious Affairs, Causes, Persons, as well as temporal, within their Realms of England, Scotland, Ireland, and other Dominions from the original Planting, Embracing of Christian Religion therein, and Reign of Lucius, our first Christian King, till the End of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth, 3 Vol. ——— ——— — — 1666

The Author proposed, in several succeeding Volumes, to have carried on this Work, as the Title specifies, down to the Reign of Queen Elizabeth; but he did not live to compleat his Design. The First Volume, tho' not first printed, has a large Frontispiece, in which the Author appears presenting his Book to King Charles II. and the Pope with his Mitre falling, &c. with a great Number of other Figures, which are all explained; and then follows a Dedication to his Majesty, wherein he gratefully takes Notice of his conferring on him, without his Sollicitation, the Office of Keeper of the Records in the Tower, with an honorary Pension; which, as also his Majesty's Encouragement, and that of some honourable Lords, engaged him in the Herculean Task of these Sheets. This Volume begins, at the first Planting of Christianity in this Island, and ends with the Reign of Richard I. chiefly consisting of Historical and other Collections, together with some Characters of our Kings, not printed before. The Second Volume, which was first published, is dedicated to the Earl of Clarendon, Lord Chancellor of England, &c. who was a principal Encourager of this valuable Work. In it, he continues the Story and Precedents from Richard I. down to the Death of Henry III. shewing, from many Records, Patents, and Historical Testimonies, that, during this Period, our Kings claimed, and exercised, supreme Jurisdiction in all Ecclesiastical Affairs in England and Ireland. Most of the printed Copies of these two former Volumes were consumed by the Fire of London in 1666, not above 70 of them being rescued from the Flames; which rendered them so exceeding scarce, that a complete Set has been sold for thirty Pounds. The Third Volume, dedicated to the Earl of Anglesey, Sir Harbotle Grimstone, Sir Matthew Hale, &c. the worshipful Readers of Lincoln's-Inn, begins with a long List of the Records of King John and Henry III, which is called an Appendix to the Second Volume; and then follow the like Precedents, in the Reign of the renowned Edward III. from all which Collections, the Author shews, that, tho' the Pope, English Clergy, and Scotch Nobility usurped upon the Rights of these three Kings, they defended themselves selves against such perfidious Incroachments. This Third Volume, Bishop Nicolson affirms, has enough (in all Conscience) to satisfy any reasonable Reader; and supersede his Enquiry into the State of the Case, in either former or following Ages. V. English Hist. Library, in Folio, p. 165.
